

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT VOTING "UNCOMMITTED"

Why vote Uncommitted?

Voters can actively engage in this historic and meaningful national movement by writing "Uncommitted" on the blank line for "Write In" on their ballot (along with filling in the bubble).

By joining in this action, we can use our ballots to communicate to the Biden Administration that we demand a ceasefire, an end to military aid to Israel, and the unrestricted flow of food, medicine, and aid to Gazans.

How do I vote Uncommitted?

Fill in the bubble next to the write-in blank line and write "Uncommitted" on the line. That's it.

Ballots are due by May 21.

Will my vote be counted and reported?

Yes! All write-in votes are counted. All votes, including write-in votes for "Uncommitted," are counted, recorded, and reported.

Filling in the oval on the ballot triggers recognition of a vote by the scanner. The scanner picks up the filled-in bubble next to the 'Write-in' line and counts the ballot. These numbers make up the 'Write-in' category. A write-in ballot is reviewed to determine the category in which it belongs.

Do I have to register as a Democrat to write in Uncommitted?
